

How far do you travel for water?	Do you have any traditions with your food?
Who is in charge of your village?	Where do you get your money from?
Do you follow a religion?	Is the water you drink clean?
How many women do you have in your village?	Do you have any choices about who is in charge?
Do you sell the food you produce?	How much food do you eat every day?
Do you vote for your government?	How do your family live? Parents, grandparents, children, aunts, uncles – all together?
Do you grow your own food?	Do you swap your food for other people's food?
Do you get help if your crops don't grow?	Does the government take any of your food or money?
Do you get to make decisions about your life?	Do you have special roles for men and women?
Who owns your village?	What is the weather like?

How far do you travel for water?	Do you have any traditions with your food?
Who is in charge of your village?	Where do you get your money from?
Do you follow a religion?	Is the water you drink clean?
How many women do you have in your village?	Do you have any choices about who is in charge?
Do you sell the food you produce?	How much food do you eat every day?
Do you vote for your government?	How do your family live? Parents, grandparents, children, aunts, uncles – all together?
Do you grow your own food?	Do you swap your food for other people's food?
Do you get help if your crops don't grow?	Does the government take any of your food or money?
Do you get to make decisions about your life?	Do you have special roles for men and women?
Who owns your village?	What is the weather like?